Far More Abundant Living

[Ruth 4:11] May the Lord make the woman, who is coming into your house, like Rachel and Leah, who together built up the house of Israel. May you act worthily in Ephrathah and be renowned in Bethlehem ...

[Ruth 4:13] So Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife. And he went in to her, and the Lord gave her conception, and she bore a son.

God is _____

[Ephesians 3:20] Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us ...

[Ruth 1:16] For where you go I will go, and where you lodge I will lodge. Your people shall be my people, and your God my God.

[Ruth 4:14 & 15] 14 Then the women said to Naomi, “Blessed be the Lord, who has not left you this day without a redeemer, and may his name be renowned in Israel! 15 He shall be to you a restorer of life and a nourisher of your old age, for your daughter-in-law who loves you, who is more to you than seven sons, has given birth to him.”

[Ruth 4:17] And the women of the neighborhood gave him a name, saying, “A son has been born to Naomi.” They named him Obed. He was the father of Jesse, the father of David.

[Ruth 2:10] ... I am a foreigner.

[Ruth 2:13] ... I am not one of your servants.

[Ruth 3:9] I am Ruth, your servant.

[Ruth 4:13] ... she became his wife.

[Ephesians 2:11-13, 19] 11 Therefore remember that at one time you Gentiles in the flesh, called “the uncircumcision” by what is called the circumcision, which is made in the flesh by hands— 12 remember that you were at that time separated from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. 13 But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. 19 So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God ...
